Modern Day Slavery Act 2015 Policy Statement

EA Group UK Ltd is committed to driving out acts of modern day slavery from within general employment practice and that from within its supply chains.

The Company acknowledges responsibility to the Modern Day Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the organisation and with suppliers of goods and services to the organisation.

The organisational structure of the business is a SME that supplies and installs; Entrance Solutions and Electronic Security Systems to its customers.

Within the supply of these products and services there are relationships with external businesses for the sourcing of products. These as well as the suppliers of services make up the supply chains within EA Group UK Ltd.

Imported products from sources from outside of the UK and EU are potentially more at risk for slavery / human trafficking issues. The level of management control required for these sources will be continually monitored.

The company will not support or deal with any business knowingly involved in slavery or human trafficking. The Company Directors and Senior Management shall take the responsibility for implementing this policy statement and its objectives and shall provide any adequate resources (training etc) and investment to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place within the organisation within its supply chains.

This policy statement will be reviewed annually and published.

Robert Munday,
Managing Director
